B4U Publishing

In some places and sometimes,
it's good not to have anyone with you.

... truly great
EXPERIENCES!

And those ideas, which come ...

... when you're alone.

When you're alone so much you've started feeling sad ...

To Be Alone? Why Not?!

... because being alone is great!

Because solitude can cast spells, bend and change reality, and sail with you into other, inner worlds.

Because solitude will vastly extend your imagination and allow you to do outlandish things ...

Because solitude can deliver the unexpected. When you're alone, nothing is impossible

Everything in moderation, of course. Sometimes even the most amazing, magical solitude can get a little too much or start to scare you. It's up to you what you allow it to do and where you let it go. So, why not try it for yourself? You could start with this book. To be alone? Why not?!
