The silence ... Where can it have gone?

Is it hiding in the cat's creeping step?
In the ocean deep? On the mountain high?

Silence is very important. It rests against sounds, giving them meaning and weight.

expectant silence

embarrassed silence
You wish the ground would swallow you up!

Gladly, an apology can make things right ...

Next time, we will know better.

Let us find room for silence
in our lives.

In return,
it will let us find ourselves.
